Title: Grinhelda's Log

Author: Grinhelda, Archeologist

Ouzday Expedition 1

Finally! We've arrived in these treacherous caves on Dagger. I know my compatriots were annoyed with how long I took to prepare, but if this is indeed Ouzday's Tomb then I want to log everything! I've been writing and studying and preparing for this for years. It's time!

Ouzday Expedition 4

I'm sure we're close. I need these people to dig faster.

Ouzday Expedition 5

I cannot believe it's taking this long. I've tried to motivate the others as best as I can. What more could I do? How are they not excited about what we may potentially find??

Ouzday Expedition 6

I've offered the diggers a little gold incentive. First one to uncover an outer wall into the burial chamber gets a small bag of gold, my thanks, and the honor of helping me find one of the most feared mages of King Wolfgang's court. How fortunate could we all be? To say "yes! I helped rediscover a lost tomb of a contemporary mage to Mondain!"

Ouzday Expedition 7

I'm a little poorer in gold but richer in every other way! One of the diggers broke into the chamber this morning!
What fascinating things shall we find?

Ouzday Expedition 10
Today Frederick accused the digger of hiding the Phylactery. She buried a pick-axe in his head.

Ouzday Expedition ???
